London and District Business Hall of Fame

Call for Laureate Nominations 2023

London and District Business Hall of Fame

Established by Junior Achievement of London and District in 1990, the London and District Business Hall of Fame honours the lifetime achievements of London and area's most distinguished individuals who have helped shape our community through their business success, entrepreneurial spirit and philanthropic contributions. These distinguished leaders have planted the seeds of greatness that today's youth will harvest to create their future.

Inductees are nominated by their peers and chosen by a selection committee. This year's Laureates will be welcomed into the London and District Business Hall of Fame at the 2023 Induction Ceremonies and Gala Dinner on Wednesday, October 25, 2023 at the RBC Place London (as possible). Laureate portraits will be installed at the permanent exhibit located on the second floor of the downtown London Public Library, 251 Dundas Street, London, Ontario.

Junior Achievement

Junior Achievement (JA) is an international non-profit organization dedicated to educating and inspiring young people about business and entrepreneurship. The JA experience helps young people discover leadership, entrepreneurial and workforce readiness skills so they can achieve their highest potential and future success as citizens in the global community.

JA can be found in more than 100 countries worldwide and is one of the world's largest non-profit organizations dedicated to educating young people about business, work readiness and entrepreneurship. JA has been recognized the world over for the invaluable contribution it has made in educating and shaping tomorrow's business leaders. In 2022, JA Worldwide was nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize in honour of its impact.

Since 1955, Junior Achievement in Canada has offered unique, hands-on learning opportunities to future business leaders.

Core Values and Mission

Mission

JA inspires and prepares young people to succeed in a global economy.

Values

- Believe in the boundless potential of young people
- Advocate for the impact of relevant, hands-on learning
- Teach principled, market-based economics and entrepreneurship that build a more sustainable world
- Approach our work with passion, honesty, integrity, and excellence
- Seek out diverse backgrounds, perspectives, and talents in our staff, volunteers, and boards to reflect the geographies and communities we serve
- Nurture the power of partnership and collaboration

Vision

A world in which... young people have the skillset and mindset to build thriving communities.

London and District Business Hall of Fame Laureate Selection Criteria

The London and District Business Hall of Fame was created to honour those who have shown a vision unique amongst their peers, provided leadership to inspire others to achieve their goals, shown true integrity throughout their lives and have built a legacy in our community that will enrich all those who will follow. By recognizing their achievements, the life of each Business Hall of Fame inductee stands as a testament to the positive impact they have made and acts as a role model for enterprising JA Achievers for generations to come.

The Laureate's entrepreneurial, business and leadership skills, vision, determination and perseverance have helped to shape our city. As role-models and mentors, the Laureates have earned the respect of their peers for their integrity and sound business ethics.

Chosen by a group of their peers, the Laureates selected for induction into the London and District Business Hall of Fame are as much recognized for their impact on the community as they are for their role and success in business. Generous community support and concern are important qualities that can be combined with practical business education to inspire our future business employees and leaders.
